

The San Francisco Department of the Environment,
The San Francisco Public Library and Partnerships for Change present

The Oracle of Tibet Discusses Global Warming

Offering the indigenous wisdom of Tibet on pressing challenges to the earth's environment

Tibet's State Oracle, Venerable Thupten Ngodup ("Nechung Kutun"), with the blessings of His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama (to whom the Oracle is a spiritual advisor) will be making his first public visit to the United States to offer insights and directions regarding global warming and individual responsibility.

Traveling from his monastery in the Himalayas—"the rooftop of the world"—Nechung Kutun will offer solutions on the biggest crisis of our times, delivering lectures and conducting open dialogues with audiences across the US from June 15 to August 8, 2007. Jared Blumenfeld, Director of the San Francisco Department of the Environment, will moderate the June 15, 2007 discussion at the SF Main Public Library.

4:15 – 5:15 pm
Friday, June 15, 2007

San Francisco Main Public Library
100 Larkin Street (at Grove)
Koret Auditorium – Main Library, Lower Level

All programs at the Library are free. Seats will be offered on a first come, first served basis. No food or drinks inside the auditorium

www.partnershipsforchange.com

www.sfpl.org

www.sfenvironment.org